IN LIEU OF THE MAY COMMUNITY MEETING:

Please attend the Picnic in the Park

Stop by the beverage table and say "hi" to the board members!

MEET THE 2019 - 2020 RNA BOARD OF DIRECTORS!

At our April 29 monthly meeting, the neighborhood residents conducted our biannual officer elections. As a result, I thought I might dedicate this month's article to reintroduce the full board of directors.

Officers

John Pare – President

John can frequently be found walking through Riverside Park on his way to and from work at the National Federation of the Blind (NFB). At the NFB, his job is to lead a small team advocating to enact federal legislation to improve the lives of blind Americans.

Jennifer McLaughlin – Vice President

Jen works in Government Relations in Annapolis and tries to do whatever she can to support RNA, including encouraging anyone and everyone she meets to get more involved. Some of Jen's favorite things in Riverside include the amazing street trees on her block, watching sail boats from the BMI pavilion, the sounds of trains and cruise ships, and the ever-growing population of kids and dogs in the neighborhood. She has lived in Riverside since 2001.

Rebecca Celotto – Secretary

Rebecca has lived in Riverside since 2013 and is a federal attorney. Rebecca loves SoBo life with her husband and two daughters and even convinced her sister and brother-in-law to move a block away. Rebecca is a member of the pool revitalization team, and is always game for a stoop night or grapefruit crush.

Joelle Woolston – Treasurer

Joelle is a bacteriophage scientist who likes math so much she offered to do it for fun. When she is not stress baking, she can be seen wandering the neighborhood with two mini-Jacksons and a cup of tea.

Committee Chairs

Rachel Wagner – Communications and Social Media

Rachel is a local business owner and mother of two who connects moms through fitness and social activities. Rachel enjoys the small town feel of life on the peninsula and the unexpected awesomeness of raising a family here.

Jackson Fisher – Riverside Park

Jackson is a biologist with the USDA research facility in Beltsville, MD where he works on plant research. For RNA, he coordinates volunteer efforts in Riverside Park and street tree activities. Our volunteers work on planting and maintaining the gardens and trees in the park, coordinating with BCRP to fix and address maintenance issues, and hosting a variety of community events.

Ann has served on the Riverside Board for 15 years in various roles. She currently handles all development questions and issues, and works directly with developers on new development projects within RNA boundaries. She also works closely with the Friends of the Park on beautification and concerts.

Jeff Dewberry – Public Safety

Jeff has lived in Riverside since 2012, and works with a variety of non-profits throughout the city. During the day he is an IT specialist for the Federal Government. In his free time Jeff enjoys playing softball and attending many of the Riverside Park activities. You can usually find Jeff pouring beer for RNA during concerts in the park.

Jeff Brown – Parking

Jeff has lived in Riverside since 2004, and is a partner in a small business that provides managed information technology services to other small companies. Jeff has been working on parking issues for Riverside since 2011. You may have spotted Jeff riding around the neighborhood on his electric unicycle, which is his preferred method of local transport and does not take up parking spaces.

Stefanie McKenzie - Newsletter

Stefanie has lived in Riverside since 2004 and is the owner of a small architecture and design firm. She prefers to lurk in the shadows, but is somewhat responsive to email and always looking for articles to run in the newsletter. Reach out to her at rna.newsletter.21230@gmail.com if you would like to submit an article related to the community.

Want to join these amazing community leaders? The Trash/Clean-Up committee chair position is vacant and looking for a committed volunteer - email the board at rnabaltimore@gmail.com.
